My Kingdom is not of this world

A Prayer for the Feast of Christ the King

Lord God
You gave the peoples of the world as the inheritance of your only Son;
you crowned him as King of Zion, your holy city,
and gave him your Church to be his Bride.
As he proclaims the law of your eternal kingdom,
may we serve him faithfully,
and so share his royal power forever.

Please return a form to the Parish Office if you would like to come to the Christmas Lunch for those who would otherwise be alone at Christmas.

Christmas Hampers

Please return a form to the Salvatorian College if you wish to nominate someone to receive a Christmas Hamper.

The Year of Mercy

The Year of Mercy declared by Pope Francis concludes today with the closing of the Holy Door in St Peter's in Rome. The Year of Mercy has reminded us that the mission of the Church is to mediate God's mercy to everyone in the world. We are aware that God wants every single person to experience his merciful love.

We Apostles of Christ therefore do everything we can to help people to realise just how loving and merciful God is. This is not for just a year but is our lifelong mission.
