Father Paul writes...

It only seems like yesterday that I said goodbye to St Joseph's, but I'm delighted to be back here now as your Parish Priest. Whilst the practicalities of the church being stuck in the middle of a building site presents numerous difficulties for us all, we - both clergy and parishioners - face the prospect of a wonderful and exciting new future in the life of our parish. It is very much my hope and prayer that all of us will, not only brave the difficulties faced by the development of the Salvatorian College site, but will move forward together, taking the parish in a new and fresh direction, building upon all the good work that has gone on before.

Over the next few months, I will be calling upon all parishioners to assist Father Frank and I in the general running of the parish in many and varied ways, but what I wish to state from the outset of my time here is that the pastoral care and well-being of all parishioners, together with providing pastoral provision for our children and young people will be amongst the most important priorities for me as Parish Priest. St Joseph's always has been a large, warm and friendly parish community and that's the way it will stay, and so I very much look forward to working with all of you in bringing about the goodness and kindness of the Divine Saviour, by all ways and means.

On Friday 8th September - Our Blessed Lady's birthday - a special mass will be celebrated at 7pm by Bishop John. This mass will mark three very special occasions: the opening of the centenary celebrations marking the death of our founder, Venerable Francis Jordan; the Jubilee anniversaries of Fathers Noel Keane, Michael Doherty, Peter Preston, and Father Bernard Finan; and the beginning of the new working arrangements between the Cardinal Hume Academy Trust and the Salvatorian College. I ask all parishioners to make an extra special effort to come along to this very important celebration.

*With love,
Father Paul*

Father Alex

I would like to thank the parishioners of St Joseph's for your most generous leaving gift. It is very thoughtful and kind of you. Moving on is always difficult but after six years serving as your parish priest I have many fond memories to look back on. And certainly I value the support you gave me during these years. I begin in my new parish of St Thomas a Becket, Wandsworth on 1st September and I look forward to the many challenges a new parish presents. With my warmest thanks, Father Alex.

A follow up meeting for new members will be held on Monday 18th Sept in the Hut.

Mass Intentions

The Archdiocese of Westminster have a recommended amount of £10 for a mass intention. Whilst the clergy are happy to receive any reasonable amount, the diocesan recommendation ought to be kept in mind. Please also note that intentions written on the offering envelope should be as clear as possible. If the intention is not clear and cannot be understood, it will be recorded on the list as "donor's intention".

If we have not peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other
