A Mustard Tree

A Hidden Meaning

Somewhere in Northern Holland there is a Church with a very ancient custom. When someone enters the Church they turn to the right and bow.

No one knew the origin of this custom, but like many other customs it just went on and on without anyone knowing really how it came about.

Then one day when the Church was being refurbished it was decided to re-plaster the section of wall opposite where the people turned to bow.

When the old plaster was scraped off it revealed a very old wall painting of the Crucifixion.

It revealed also the reason why people turned to bow when they entered the Church; they bowed to honour their crucified Saviour.

Please avoid loud chatter in the church!

Day for Life

Today the Church celebrates the Day for Life, which this year will focus on all those who are suffering, or have survived human trafficking and modern slavery. It provides an opportunity to pray, reflect, and to choose the ways in which action, as well as practical and emotional support can ensure the dignity of human life is upheld at every stage of a person's life. For more information and ways to donate, please collect a leaflet from the back of the church.

Adoremus Extra Booklet

Adoremus Extra, in support of Pastoral Congress in Liverpool in September, is on sale at the back of the Church. £4.95.

Pilgrimage to Sturry

Again this year, the Sisters of Our Lady of the Missions hope to have a parish visit to Sturry Convent and Heritage House, near Canterbury. The date this year will be Saturday 22nd September. It is another chance to meet the sisters who once worked here in Wealdstone and old friends. A "sign up" list will be put at the back of the Church in a few weeks' time and we ask you to add your name as soon as possible. We look forward to welcoming you again and to see those who were unable to join us last year.

it is less likely to unravel
