Dear Parishioners,

I trust all of you managed to have a wonderful summer break of one kind or another. As you know, I recently returned from Germany after spending four weeks assembled with other Salvatorians from around the world for the XIX General Chapter. During this time the international leadership team of the Order where elected to office. Father Milton Zonta (Brazil) was re-elected for a second term of office, together with the following members of his Council.

Vicar General: Father Adam Teneta (Poland)

1st Consultor: Father Joe Rodrigues (USA)

2nd Consultor: Father Agustin Van Baelen (Venez)

3rd Consultor: Father Sunil Thomas (India)

4th Consultor: Father Ferdinand Lukoa (Tanz)

Very Rev Milton Zonta SDS
Superior General

I would also like to take the opportunity to congratulate both Sacred Heart Language College and the Salvatorian College as they celebrate their fantastic GCSE results this year. Such results are a testimony not only to the teachers and staff, but moreover, to the determination and effort of the pupils. A huge congratulations to all!

Finally, I wish to extend a very warm welcome to Mr Christopher Briggs as Head of St Joseph's Primary. On behalf of the parish clergy and parishioners, we wish Christopher a very successful time at our school.

With Love
Father Paul
