New Members of the Church; Vocations; The Right Use of the Media; The Church; Human Work

This week we welcome Father Mario Lainez SDS from Honduras, to our Parish Team. He lived in Guatemala and USA. In 2010 he joined the Salvatorians in Wisconsin USA and was ordained as a priest in May 2018 in Poland, where he completed his studies.

Father Mario is happy to join St Joseph's Church and be part of this flourishing multicultural community.

We assure him our support in this ministry.

Father Thomas

Church Toilets

The church toilets are currently closed and are unavailable for use whilst they are being refurbished. We anticipate that the work should be completed by next weekend. We apologise for any inconvenience.

Car Parking

Please note that the temporary church car park is also doubling, during the week, as parking for some of the staff of Salvatorian College whilst work is completed on the new building. This car park is also used by the Community, and disabled parking bays have been marked out for this purpose and should be kept free, unless you have a disabled parking permit, at all times to allow emergency access. Please also take care when turning into the car park off the High Road as pedestrians and cars share the access road.

First Holy Communion 2020

We are looking for Catechists to help with the First Holy Communion programme which will commence in January 2020. Please contact the Parish Office for details.
