The Last Supper, Ugo di Nerio circa 1325-30.

Pange Lingua

Of the glorious Body telling,
O my tongue, its mysteries sing,
And the Blood, all price excelling,
Which the world's eternal King,
In a noble womb once dwelling
Shed for the world's ransoming.

Given for us, descending,
Of a Virgin to proceed,
Man with man in converse blending,
Scattered he the Gospel seed,
Till his sojourn drew to ending,
Which he closed in wondrous deed.

At the last great Supper lying
Circled by his brethren's band,
Meekly with the law complying,
First he finished its command
Then, immortal Food supplying,
Gave himself with his own hand.

Word made Flesh, by word he maketh
Very bread his Flesh to be;
Man in wine Christ's Blood partaketh:
And if senses fail to see,
Faith alone the true heart waketh
To behold the mystery.

Therefore we, before him bending,
This great Sacrament revere;
Types and shadows have their ending,
For the newer rite is here;
Faith, our outward sense befriending,
Makes the inward vision clear.

Glory let us give, and blessing
To the Father and the Son;
Honour, might, and praise addressing,
While eternal ages run;
Ever too his love confessing,
Who, from both, with both is one. Amen.

On Tuesday 25 June 2019, boys in Year 5 from St Joseph's, St Theresa's, St George's, St Bernadette's, and St Anselm's Primary Schools will spend their day at Salvatorian College taking part in a number of fun, educational activities to give them a taste of life at Secondary School. If you have a son in Year 5 in a school other than those mentioned above, we would be delighted to welcome you and your son for a tour of the school at another convenient time. Salvatorian College – Art Exhibition

On Thursday 27 June 2017, there will be an art exhibition in the new Salvatorian College building, showcasing all of Year 11's Art and Photography work from this year, as well as a preview of talented Year 10 pupils coming through. The show will run from 3-6pm and there will be refreshments and snacks available. All parishioners and wider members of the community are most welcome to attend.

Help required with washing the Altar Linens

We currently have a small group of very dedicated ladies who wash and iron some of the church linens and they desperately need some help with this very important task. Being involved in a task like this is very rewarding and is one of those important jobs carried out behind the scenes. So if you would like more information or would like to express an interest in joining this team of ladies then please speak to Father Frank who will be happy to provide further details.

Thanksgiving Mass for First Holy Communion

All children who made their First Holy Communion this year are invited to attend a Thanksgiving Mass next Sunday 30th June at 9.30am. They are welcome to wear their suits/dresses at this special celebration, if they would like to. Certificates will be ready for collection, from the Pastoral Office, following Mass.

Car Park Request

Whilst the School rebuild continues we would like to thank you all for your patience and understanding in terms of the upheaval caused. The car park facility provided seems to be working well. We would however like to make a request with regards to parking please. As you turn in the side of the church there are approximately 5 spaces in that area adjacent to the steps that lead to the church. We would like these spaces to be left available for disabled drivers or for elderly or infirm parishioners. So if you are able to walk from the main car park at the back then we would respectfully request that you do not park in those spaces at the front. Thank you for your co-operation with this matter.

Mass Intentions

Please note that we do not usually announce the names of the deceased at the start of Mass. However, if you wish a name to be announced, please speak with the priest in the sacristy beforehand and/or confer with the parish secretary in advance. This should clear up any misunderstanding.
