Cycle of Prayer for England & Wales - Easter

New Members of the Church; Vocations; The Right Use of the Media; The Church; Human Work

A very happy Mothering Sunday to all our wonderful mums in the parish. I know just how many of you mums run about each and every day after your children and grandchildren, doing all those things a mum does to keep their family functioning and happy. Today we pray for you all, giving thanks for all you do. Of course, we think of those mothers who have gone on to heaven - may God bless you all, living and departed.

We extend our prayers and congratulations to all those children who made their first confession in church last Thursday. I place on record my thanks to our parish catechists who give of their time so generously to ensure the children are prepared well for the reception of the sacraments. We look forward to celebrating their fast approaching First Holy Communion masses after Easter.

We are fast approaching Holy Week and Easter. As such, I have produced a helpful guide to the Easter Triduum celebrations which, sadly, are not quite well understood by most people. They are free to take and I encourage all to have a read.
