Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

7th August 2022

Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgment continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgment is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the needs of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed.

The other major way to be ready for the coming judgment is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet, which, even now, can last for a few days in the Middle East. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like.

Pope's Intention for August

We pray for small and medium sized businesses; in the midst of economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.

Rosary intention for August

To show love and kindness with a smile.

Safeguarding

Our Safeguarding Representatives are Agnes Wieczaszek, Brigitte Lawal and Anne Yep. A dedicated Safeguarding noticeboard can be found in the church porch showing how parishioners can report any concerns they may have.

Family Day & Concert

We are planning another Family Day, including a BBQ and children's entertainment, followed by a Concert in the Salvatorian College on Sunday 18th September. To make this event a success we will need lots of help! If you would like to volunteer, please let the Parish Office know. We also need donations of gifts for the Tombola and raffle. Please keep the date free! More details to follow. Many thanks for your support.

Family Mass

The Children's Liturgy Group and Folk Group are now on their Summer break. We wish everyone a happy and safe summer holiday.

Holiday Money

If you have any euros, dollars, etc, after returning from your holiday, and would like to donate them, please put them in an envelope and put in the collection at the weekend. Thank you.

Sanctuary Lamp Intentions

Two lamps constantly burn before the tabernacle to indicate the presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. The candles burn for 7 days - Saturday to Saturday. These may be offered for intentions at £10 each.
