Lost and found

In his ministry, Jesus constantly proclaimed and witnessed to God's mercy and forgiving love.

God loves the just but does not ignore the sinner, for whom there is always a place in his kingdom. The church is not an exclusive club. The Pharisees resent God's mercy. The parable of the lost sheep does not deny the goodness of the virtuous majority but makes the point that there's a special place for the repentant sinner. The lost coin is important to the careful housewife, and her joy at its recovery is shared because it is deeply felt. The sum may be modest, but its sentimental value matters a lot to her. All are V.I.P.s in God's eyes, and especially what was lost and found. His mercy is there for any of us who turn to him with all his heart.
