Twelfth Sunday Ordinary Time

25th June 2023

Every hair on your head has been counted."

We read today's Gospel in the context of last week's Gospel in which Jesus sent the 12 disciples to proclaim the kingdom of heaven. In between last week's reading and today's reading, Jesus has predicted that the disciples will face difficulties in their mission. Many people will not receive them well, even within the land of Israel. Even family members will turn away from the disciples because of the disciples' commitment to Jesus and the kingdom. Today's Gospel offers the disciples consolation against this difficult truth.

We might not face the same type of persecution, but we do experience difficulties as we endeavour to live a Christian life. Sometimes we let the opinions of others prevent us from doing what we know to be right. We need the reminder that what God thinks about us is more important. We are reassured by the promise that God cares for us and protects us.

Pope's Intention for June

We pray the international community may commit in a concrete way to ensuring the abolition of torture and guarantee support to victims and their families.

Rosary intention for June

We pray especially for those with mental health issues in our parish community.

International Mass & Family Day

Following last year's success, our Events Team are planning another Family Day on Sunday 10th September. Mass at 12.30pm will celebrate our wonderfully diverse parish, with food from around the world and games from 1pm in the Salvatorian College, followed by a concert at 4pm.

Bugsy Malone

Salvatorian College and the Sacred Heart Language College present this classic slapstick musical comedy, following the rivalry between two half-witted street gangs. The show will run in the Francis Jordan Hall on 4th, 5th and 6th July at 6pm and will last 1 hr 45 minutes with an intermission. Tickets are priced at £6.00 available online (bit.ly/salvobugsy), by phone (020 8863 2706) or at Salvatorian College during office hours. Do come along and support our talented young people!

Guild of St Stephen/Altar Servers

The next regular monthly meeting will take place on Saturday 1st July at 9:30am in the prayer room. All servers are required to attend as we will be finalising the rota for the months of July & August. Please make every effort to attend as this is part of our commitment as a member of the Guild of St Stephen.
