Thirteenth Sunday Ordinary Time

2nd July 2023

Every hair on your head has been counted."

The gospel for this Sunday challenges us, as disciples, to prioritize our commitment to Jesus over familial ties, reflecting the radical nature of discipleship. The corporal works of mercy, including feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and sheltering the homeless, exemplify this sacrificial love by directly meeting the physical needs of others.

By embracing these acts of mercy, we embody selflessness, echoing the profound commitment demanded by Christ and fulfilling the command to love our neighbour as ourselves.

Pope's Intention for July

We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a deep way and being open to meeting God with their brothers and sisters.

Rosary intention for July

We pray especially for those who are persecuted for the faith in Christ the Lord.

Sea Sunday

Next Sunday is Sea Sunday when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Seafarers and fishers often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. Last year, more crews than ever, were abandoned by their employers. Many are denied the right to leave their ships, even for a short break. Your support makes a big difference. You can donate, using envelopes at the back of the church, by visiting www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate, or by texting 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5. This collection is vital to enable Stella Maris to continue its important work. Please give generously. Thank you.
