Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

22nd January 2023

Today's Gospel (John 1:29-34) marks the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. Now is the time to gather others to be part of it. Fishermen Peter and Andrew, his brother, together with James and John, hear and respond to Jesus' call "Follow me, and I will make you fishermen for people".

The disciples answered the call, learned from Jesus, then told others about what they knew. By doing so they changed the world.

For us, the lesson is to be true to our calling, like the disciples, and allow God to do the rest.
