Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

11th June 2023

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, the Latin words for “the Body of Christ.” In the most recent revision of our liturgical rites, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology.

The Eucharist is the heart of everything. It will be a pity if the Eucharist became just a ritual, an empty ritual. Jesus gives himself to us here, so that we in our turn may give ourselves to others. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life.

Pope's Intention for June

We pray the international community may commit in a concrete way to ensuring the abolition of torture and guarantee support to victims and their families.

Rosary intention for June

We pray especially for those with mental health issues in our parish community.
