Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time 20th September 2026

The readings for this Sunday remind us that God's mercy and generosity go far beyond what we expect. He invites everyone to turn to Him, no matter how late they come. His ways are not like ours. Where people see limits, God offers grace without measure.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the story of the workers in the vineyard. The landowner pays them all the same, no matter when they began. It may seem unfair, but Jesus shows that God's love does not follow human rules. On this Sunday we are reminded that God's mercy is for all who say yes to His call.

Pope's Intention for September

Let us pray for a just and sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone may have equal access to it.

Rosary Intention for September

We pray for those who haven't found the love of God.

Form Signing: Mondays & Wednesday 6-7pm
No appointment necessary.

International Mass & Parish Celebration

Thank you to everyone who attended last Sunday's International Mass. It was a wonderful celebration of the richness and diversity of our Parish Community. We are especially grateful to those who took part in the Mass either by reading & singing in their native language, bringing up the offertory or by coming in their National Dress. Thank you to Father Thomas for celebrating a beautiful and uplifting Mass and to Dominic and the Folk Group for providing the music liturgy. We extend our sincere thanks to everyone who brought food to share for our celebration in the Parish Hall, which was enjoyed by everyone who came. We look forward to continuing this parish tradition together next year.
