Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time 18th October 2026

This Sunday teaches that God's power reaches everywhere. He can work through anyone, even people who do not know Him. In the Gospel, Jesus faces a test about loyalty. His answer is simple but wise: give Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give God what belongs to God.

Today, we are reminded that faith calls for balance. We live in this world, but our hearts belong to God alone.

Church Flowers

Firstly, thank you to Maureen for her continual management of the church flowers, they always look so bright and cheerful. We would like to request that if you would like to donate flowers to the church that you bring them during the week to the parish office and we can then place them in the flower room for Maureen to display as necessary. Please do not place flowers on the sanctuary at any time. Thank you.
